DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the RCE and IDS filed on 07/11/05.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 24-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakamura et al. (US 5,168,509) (hereafter Nakamura).

Regarding claims 24, 30, Nakamura discloses the claimed subject matter "a modulator operable to modulate the first data stream ... to transmit the modulated signals" in Fig.3, elements 11, 14. Nakamura differs from the claimed invention in that Nakamura doesn't teach "wherein the first data stream ... value of n". However, since the receiving would need to be know the type of modulation used in order to facilitate demodulation, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to include such information into any of the data stream as a preference.

Regarding claims 25, 31, the claimed subject matter "wherein n is ... m" would have been optional.

Regarding claims 26, 32, Nakamura also discloses the receiving side in Fig. 3.

Regarding claims 27, 33, see claim 25.

Regarding claims 28, 34, see claims 24 and 26

Regarding claims 29, 35, see claim 25.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 18-23 are allowed.
